Announcing Our New Managing Partner

HUNTINGTON, NY - Brown Altman & DiLeo, LLP is proud to announce that David N. Altman has been officially named the new Managing Partner of the firm, following Keith P. Brown's election and inauguration to the office of New York State Assemblyman for the 12th District.

"It has been a pleasure to guide the firm through unprecedented growth and to create the type of professional atmosphere and family environment where people can thrive professionally. I especially want to thank Jacki Livoti for all you do to make our lives easier as our Office Manager all these years. Please join me in congratulating my friend and partner, David Altman, as Managing Partner,” said Keith P. Brown, Esq. “Certainly well-deserved and I am confident, as with everything else in his life, he will do a tremendous job as our new Managing Partner and help guide us into the future”.

“Congratulations to Dave and thank you to Keith. We have been in good hands for years and we will continue to be in good hands going forward. We are very fortunate to have great leadership,” said Michael J. DiLeo, Esq.

“I am honored and I want to express my appreciation to Keith, Mike, Jacki and all of you for your confidence in me and the tremendous support that you give, daily, to this firm. We are all in this together and we will continue to function, collaboratively, as a family. While the Managing Partner moniker follows my name, my dear friend and fellow partner, Mr. DiLeo, shares this distinction with me,” said David N. Altman, Esq. “As a firm, it requires our collective effort to see that our firm continues to succeed.”
